PROGRAM

Conference attendees are invited to speak with representatives from the NJ Department of Corrections, NJ State Parole Board, Federal Bureau of Prisons, NJ State Police, NJ County Jail Warden's Association, NJ Association of Criminal Justice Educators, and the NJ American Correctional Association. There will be an opportunity to purchase books and publications about topics relevant to our Justice System. Attendees will have an opportunity to attend a book signing by Harry Camisa and Jim Franklin, co-authors of Inside Out: Fifty Years Behind the Walls of New Jersey's Trenton State Prison. In his book, Harry describes in rich detail the incidents that shaped his 50-year career at NJDOC, including some of the mistakes he made as a young officer that helped him develop into a more effective, mature corrections professional. Harry's "true-crime" narrative highlights the day-to-day interaction between officer and inmate and features a cast of New Jersey's most prominent felons beginning in 1950 with Charlie "The Bug" Workman, who killed Prohibition-Era mobster Dutch Schultz in 1935, up to HBO favorite the late Richard "Iceman" Kuklinski. The list of notables includes Westfield accountant John List, who was captured through the efforts of TV's America's Most Wanted, and Monmouth County serial killer Richard Biegenwald, who managed to beat both the chair and the needle. Both List and Biegenwald worked for Camisa in the prison's print shop. Camisa also describes his interactions with Rubin "Hurricane" Carter, played in the movie Hurricane by Denzel Washington, who also starred in American Gangster as Frank Lucas, another Camisa acquaintance at TSP. Harry and Jim, along with inmate Teddy "the Bull" Roberts (who knocked out "The Hurricane" in the prison yard) have spoken to scores of CJ classes at Rowan, TCNJ, Villanova, and Rutgers-Camden, as well as Ocean, Essex, Mercer and Ocean CCs. This will be an opportunity to hear some great stories from a New Jersey corrections legend—and to get a signed copy of his book.
